Dear Dr. Williams,

This will confirm our agreement by telephone on 30 September will present himself to you on I November to speak to no more than three undergraduate classes on the subject of Sino-Soviet relations, Soviet politics, and international relations. No class will be larger than thirty-five students. Publicity will be held to a minimum, and no press or media people will be present.
By agreement, you will respond with the specific schedule which you wish to follow. Any instructions about how to reach your office would also be helpful. If it is possible, I am sure would like to know something about the course content for each class to which he will speak. It would also be nice if he could meet with you for a few minutes before his first talk.

Let me close by saying that we are pleased that you have invited us to send a representative to your campus. Mr. Colby has taken special interest in academic relations, and wants us to be as forthcoming as possible.
